

Prof. Suman Sarkar
Prof. & HOD, (MBA)
IILM, AHL, Greater Noida.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to write to you and invite you and your colleagues for our FDP on Effective teaching through case method from 19th to 21st January at the IILM Greater Noida Campus .

IILM as you might be aware was set up as an autonomous institute, more than a decade and a half back and since then has gained from strength to strength ,to be among the top B-Schools in the country today.

In one of our many efforts, we continuously strive to bring in intellectual capital to the table to ensure that our audience be it the students ,faculty, or the practising managers gain from this bank of knowledge and experience.

This FDP is one such effort towards inputting the participants for enabling them to further enhance in their teaching and training by a highly earnest and qualified team .

The attachment with this note will give you all necessary information for your further details and understanding on the programme.

I am sure you will on going through this feel encouraged to participate in this and will also like all your known relevant personnel to be part of the same.

I hope with we will get to meet on the scheduled days and further our association for a long and enriching future ahead.

Looking forward to seeing you and take this opportunity of wishing you and your loved ones a very happy and a successful 2011.

With regards

Your sincerely

Prof. Suman Sarkar